

Karen David Launches 'Alive'

Acclaimed UK singer/actress Karen David celebrates with Hip-Hop Activist Raoul Juneja (a.k.a. Deejay Ra) August 4th in Downtown Toronto, at a private party commemorating the Canadian release of Karen's debut EP this week.

Karen, originally raised in Etobicoke, made a surprise appearance the weekend prior at the Toronto Masala-Mehndi-Masti Festival as part of the Alia Khan Fashion Show, which was Karen's first Canadian performance in over ten years.

Alongside hit Canadian songwriter and record producer Rob Wells on piano, Karen treated a jam-packed audience to special 'unplugged' renditions of songs from her EP including the 'Choli Ke Peeche' inspired "I Need You" and the A.R. Rahman produced "Alive", from the soundtrack of Aishwarya Rai's "Provoked" movie in which Karen also appears in.

Besides having previously filmed "Alive" with A.R. Rahman for her debut music video, in the upcoming months Karen will be returning to Rahman's Panchathan Record Inn studios in Chennai to put the finishing touches on her highly anticipated debut album.
